

I'm writing to ask that you please do NOT lift the cross-ownership ban. Your agency is supposed to be working for the public's interest. That means ensuring that we have access to a very wide spectrum of news sources and opinions. Please do not put profit above our right to freedom of information.